

GoP Take Stock in Children Dinner

September 17, 2012

Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

Brown Barge Middle School student De'Shawn Brundidge gets a laugh out the crowd while speaking during the annual Take Stock in Children Kick-Off Dinner on Monday at The Wright Place at the First United Methodist Church. Brundidge and 16 other were introduced as new students in Take Stock in Children mentoring program that offers each one a college scholarship if they meet the program requirements.